Possible City Manager Recruitment and Hiring Plan

- Ask Human Resources to advertise locally and regionally for prospective candidates (Starting January 29)
- Set 20 day time frame for candidates to apply (until approximately February 16)
- Ask Human Resources to prepare a packet for each commissioner that will include every application/resume for review. Ask Commission to review and rank each candidate on a scale of 1 to 10 within a ten day timeframe from the date they receive the packets (Reviewed and ranked by February 26)
- Commission tallies and ranks the candidate score sheets (by February 28)
- Commission will identify the top 3, 4, or 5 candidates they would like to further consider (February 28)
- Human Resources will be asked to set up appointments for an in-person Commission interview with the identified finalists (Week of March 12)
- Commission will rank the final candidates on a 10 to 10 scale (by March 23)
- Commission will select their top ranked candidate for the position
- Contract will be prepared by Human Resources and the City Attorney and negotiation and hiring done for the selected candidate (Within the last week of March)
